The Cuban Revolution in the 1950s led to the end of the trade relationship between which country and Cuba?

A. Spain
B. England
C. the Soviet Union
D. the United States

The presence of Spanish conquistadors in the New World led to which of the following religious developments?

A. the spread of Judaism
B. the spread of Animism
C. the spread of Catholicism
D. the spread of Protestantism

Which European country had the GREATEST impact on the religion and language of modern-day Brazil?

A. England
B. France
C. Portugal
D. Spain

What were the haciendas that were created in Latin America?

A. small villages built by indigenous peoples living in Latin America
B. large churches built by the Spanish in order to spread Christianity
C. large plantations owned by Spanish and usually worked by slaves
D. small farms owned by Spanish families who came to Latin America
As a result of European imperialism, which of the following are the primary languages spoken in Latin America today?

A. Italian and French
B. Italian and German
C. Spanish and Dutch
D. Spanish and Portuguese

Which religion continues to dominate in Latin America today due to the influence of European imperialism?

A. Catholicism
B. Hinduism
C. Islam
D. Judaism

Which country MOST LIKELY has a high literacy rate?

A. a country with a low tax rate
B. a country with a high standard of living
C. a country with a high unemployment rate
D. a country with a low gross domestic product

What was one of the immediate effects of the Cuban Revolution?

A. The government seized private property and nationalized it.
B. The government entered into an alliance with the US government.
C. The government seized the US naval base in Cuba and all of its weapons.
D. The government forced all citizens of other countries to leave Cuba.